BROOKS CONCORDIA CLASSIC WOMEN'S TOURNEY

Concordia University's Department of Fitness, Recreation and Athletics will play host to one of its most elaborate women's basketball tournaments in recent years this weekend, November 21 and 22, at the Loyola Campus gymnasium.

Four university and four CEGEP/Junior College clubs will compete in the Brooks Concordia Classic.

The much improved Concordia Stingers head the field of university squads which also includes McGill, Ottawa and Southern Connecticut State.

In the CEGEP/Junior College category local representation comes from John Abbott and Vanier. The Ottawa Rookies and Roxbury Community College of Boston round out the teams.

Action gets underway Friday at 2 p.m. with the Rookies meeting Vanier followed by John Abbott versus Roxbury at 9 p.m. Ottawa takes on McGill at 6 p.m. while the 8 p.m. match pits Concordia against Southern Connecticut.

Saturday will see the consolation match in the CEGEP/Junior College and University categories take place at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. respectively. The championship finals are slated for 3 p.m. and 5 p.m.
